Fahrenheit 451—Guided Reading for Part 3

Part 3... At the beginning of Part 3, Beatty makes a reference to Classical literature and the story of Icarus by saying, "Old Montag wanted to fly near the sun, and now that he's burnt his damned wings, he wonders why." Research this allusion to Icarus and explain how it relates.	Part 3... Describe Mildred's motivation for calling in the alarm on her own home. Cite specific examples from the text about her character that would lead her to do this.	Part 3... Beatty quotes Shakespeare when he states, "There is no terror, Cassius, in your threats, for I am arm'd so strong in honesty that they pass by me as an idle wind, which I respect not!" Research what happened between Cassius and Caesar. Then explain how this allusion relates to Montag's next action.
Part 3... What was your reaction to the killing of Captain Beatty? Were you surprised?	Part 3... What was the purpose of allowing the Mechanical Hound to track and kill an innocent man?	Part 3... A symbol is a person, place, or object that represents something beyond itself. What do you think the campfire in the forest represents? How is this fire different from others in the book?

Part 3... Do you think Granger’s comparison of humanity to the phoenix adds to a major theme of the novel? Explain your answer.	Part 3... At the end of the novel, how does the allusion to the Book of Ecclesiastes relate to the men’s plan for the city. Explain.	Part 3... According to Beatty, everyone in his society is certain nothing will happen to him or her. “There are no consequences and no responsibilities,” he adds. Would you agree that such attitudes are common in our own society? Why or why not?
