

Introduction Frame for Success Essay

1. Introduce the idea of success—use a famous quote, a bold statement, or an appropriate question.
2. Introduce the article—include the full title and author of the article plus a short description of the main idea of the article
3. Relate the idea of success to eighth grade students with a general statement
4. Introduce the three habits you will discuss (in two or three sentences)
5. Include a strong thesis statement that supports success in eighth grade